

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

JOSE SOLIS,

Plaintiff,

-v-

5 FRIENDS CORP. et al.,

Defendants.

24 Civ. 1058 (PAE)
ORDER

PAUL A. ENGELMAYER, District Judge:

On October 29, 2024, the parties wrote to Magistrate Judge Stein, to whom this case was referred for general pretrial supervision, indicating that they have reached a settlement in principle and requesting 30 days to submit a written settlement agreement by November 29, 2024, for the Court's approval pursuant to Cheeks v. Freeport Pancake House, Inc., 796 F.3d 199, 206 (2d Cir. 2105). Dkt. 18. In light of the impending settlement, the Court grants the parties' request.

Given Judge Stein's role in facilitating this settlement, the Court also encourages the parties to discuss whether they are willing to consent, under 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), to conducting all further proceedings before Judge Stein. Should the parties elect this option, Judge Stein would resolve the application for approval under Cheeks, rather than making a Report and Recommendation to this Court with respect to that issue. Judge Stein would also resolve any additional legal questions that may arise in the case. Any appeal from Judge Stein's rulings following consent would be directly to the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit in the same way that an appeal from a District Judge's decision would be taken.

If both parties consent to proceed before Judge Stein, counsel for the defendants should either email directly or file on ECF a fully executed Notice, Consent, and Reference of a Civil Action to a Magistrate Judge form, a copy of which is attached to this order (and also available at <https://www.nysd.uscourts.gov/forms/consent-proceed-us-magistrate-judge>). The parties are free to withhold consent without negative consequences.

SO ORDERED.

NOTICE, CONSENT, AND REFERENCE OF A CIVIL ACTION TO A MAGISTRATE JUDGE

Notice of a magistrate judge's availability. A United States magistrate judge of this court is available to conduct all proceedings in this civil action (including a jury or nonjury trial) and to order the entry of a final judgment. The judgment may then be appealed directly to the United States court of appeals like any other judgment of this court. A magistrate judge may exercise this authority only if all parties voluntarily consent.

You may consent to have your case referred to a magistrate judge, or you may withhold your consent without adverse substantive consequences. The name of any party withholding consent will not be revealed to any judge who may otherwise be involved with your case.

Consent to a magistrate judge's authority. The following parties consent to have a United States magistrate judge conduct all proceedings in this case including trial, the entry of final judgment, and all post-trial proceedings.
